

Terms and Conditions of the medmeetstech.com Website along with the Rules of Participation in the conference entitled:
"MEDmeetsTECH #11"

§ 1
GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. These Regulations define, inter alia, principles of the Service Provider's website operation, conditions for participation in the Conference, method of concluding contracts, rights and obligations of the Service Provider as well as Customers and Users.
2. These Regulations are made available free of charge, also via the Internet at www.medmeetstech.com
3. The legal basis of these Regulations are:
  - 1) The Act of July 18, 2002 on the provision of electronic services;
  - 2) The Act of 23 April 1964. Civil Code;
  - 3) General Data Protection Regulation of 27 April 2016 (hereinafter referred to as "RODO").
4. These Regulations in no way limit or exclude the rights of customers resulting from mandatory provisions of law. In the event of a conflict of the provisions of the Regulations with the above provisions, the mandatory provisions shall apply in the first place.
5. The person authorized to contact the Organizer is: Janusz Kowalski, e-mail address: jkowalski@medmeetstech.com, contact phone: +48 606 834 368
6. The Regulations are addressed both to entities conducting business activity within the meaning of the Law of Entrepreneurs who are entrepreneurs within the meaning of the Civil Code, and to persons who are consumers within the meaning of Polish law.
7. The website at www.medmeetstech.com is run by the Service Provider.
8. Contact with the Service Provider is possible via e-mail at: jkowalski@medmeetstech.com, by phone at +48 606 834 368 and by correspondence at: Aleja Wielkopolska 29, 60-603 Poznan, Poland.
9. The Service Provider does not interfere with the content of the legal relations between the Customer and the Participants.
10. The Website as a whole is protected by rights belonging to the Service Provider or third parties.
11. Using the Services does not transfer any intellectual property rights to the Client or Participant. Using them is conditional on meeting the requirements of the relevant legal provisions or obtaining the consent of the relevant entity.
12. The organizer is free to decide which of the projects sent as part of the Startup Application service will be presented at the Conference. The decision on the selection of a specific project will be communicated to the Client who submitted it no later than 14 days before the date of the Conference.

§ 2
DEFINITIONS

Unless otherwise expressly stated in the Regulations, the following capitalized terms have been given the following meaning:

- a) Price list - the valid price list for participation in the Conference available on the website <https://medmeetstech.com/rejestracja>
- b) Conference - an event organized by the Organizer under the name: MEDmeetsTECH #11 taking place remotely in a non-stationary form in real time, via an external application indicated by the Organizer
- c) Client - a natural person not conducting business activity, a natural person running a business, a legal person or an organizational unit with legal capacity, represented by its representative using the Website and its functionality or concluding an Agreement with the Organizer for participation in the Conference
- d) Newsletter - a service consisting in sending customers by the Service Provider, via e-mail, cyclical information about new products, promotions and events and activities of the Service Provider, including commercial information
- e) Organizer / Service Provider - means a natural person running a business under the name: Avance Galicja Agencja Reklamowa with its registered office at Aleja Wielkopolska 29, 60-603 Poznan, Poland NIP: 7810018395, REGON: 387756413
- f) Privacy Policy - a set of rules for the processing of personal data of Customers or Users, including the scope of the provision of electronic services and the use of "cookies" by the Service Provider, which supplements the Regulations in the scope of the Website and provided services
- g) Registration - a service that allows customers or their representatives to place an Order on the Website and to define the terms of the Agreement for participation in the Conference by completing the application form
- h) Regulations - this document containing a set of rules and conditions for participation in the Conference, as well as the use and functioning of the Website, available on the website at: <https://medmeetstech.com/rejestracja>. Website - the website at www.medmeetstech.com
- i) Participant - a Client who is a natural person running or not conducting business activity or a representative of a Client who is a natural person or a legal person or an organizational unit with legal capacity, as well as a natural person indicated by the Client who participates in the Conference on the basis of the Agreement for participation in the Conference concluded between the Client and the Organizer
- j) Commercial information - any information intended directly or indirectly to promote goods, services or the image of an entrepreneur or a practitioner whose right to practice depends on the fulfillment of the requirements specified in separate acts, excluding information enabling communication by means of electronic communication with a specific person and information about goods and services that do not achieve the commercial effect desired by the entity that orders its dissemination, in particular without remuneration or other benefits from producers, sellers and service providers
- k) Agreement for participation in the Conference - a paid distance agreement between the Organizer and the Client, on the basis of which the Client or the Participant indicated by him acquires the right to participate in the Conference, i.e. for the Client or the Participant indicated by him, the Organizer provides the service of participation in the Conference
- l) Agreement for the provision of electronic services - an agreement concluded via the Website, the subject of which is the provision of electronic services indicated in §7 of the Regulations
- m) Order - an offer submitted by the Customer or his representative via the Website, expressing a desire to conclude an Agreement for participation in the Conference

- n) Startup Application - a service consisting in the application of a startup by a Client who is a natural person in order to be able to present it during the Conference

§ 3 CONFERENCE

1. The conference is addressed to: entrepreneurs, doctors, scientists, managers of medical institutions, students and programmers.
2. The Conference may also be attended by representatives of sponsors, partners, media patrons and Customers who are natural persons who have been selected by the Organizer to present their startup (as part of the Startup Application service).
3. The official website of the Conference is available on the website at: <http://medmeetstech.com/>. The website also includes the conference program.
4. As part of the Conference, there will be presentations by speakers and discussion panels in real time on-line, via the application indicated by the Organizer.
5. Information about the Conference along with the amount of the fee, presented on the Organizer's Website, do not constitute offers within the meaning of Art. 66 § 1 of the Act of April 23, 1964 Civil Code. Information about the Conference along with the amount of the fee is only an invitation to conclude a contract within the meaning of Art. 71 of the Civil Code.
6. The conference is conducted in English. However, this does not exclude giving lectures in a language other than English.
7. The organizer reserves the right to change the conference program in terms of topics and speakers for reasons beyond his control. In the event of such a change, the Customer is immediately informed of the above in the form of an e-mail. In such a situation, the Customer who is a consumer may withdraw from the Agreement for participation in the Conference by submitting an appropriate statement to the Organizer. If the Customer who is a consumer does not submit a declaration of withdrawal from the contract at the latest by the end of the day preceding the Conference, it is considered that the Customer who is a consumer has accepted the changes to the Conference program.
8. The service of participation in the Conference, which is the subject of the Agreement for participation in the Conference, is provided remotely, in real time, via the application indicated by the Organizer on May 14, 2021.
9. In order to participate in the Conference, the Client or the Participant indicated by him should enter the link (hyperlink) sent to him by the Organizer before the date of the Conference.
10. The Client or Participant is not obliged to install the application through which it is possible to participate in the Conference. However, the Client or Participant should meet the following technical requirements that enable participation in the Conference:
  - 1) using a PC, Mac or similar computer device, equipped with an operating system (e.g. Linux, Mac OS, Windows or similar) or other device enabling access and browsing the Internet, in particular a mobile device (mobile phone, smartphone, tablet e.t.c.);
  - 2) Internet access and an active e-mail account;
  - 3) Internet browser Internet Explorer 10 or newer, Mozilla Firefox 14.01 or newer, Google Chrome 10 or newer, Opera (the necessary requirement to configure the browser is to support HTML documents and accept "Cookies"), and the need to turn on javascript in the web browser;

11. If the Client or Participant installs an application through which participation in the Conference is possible, the Client or Participant concludes an agreement with a third party - the provider of this software. The Organizer has no influence on the content of this legal relationship, does not interfere with it, and does not affect the scope and method of processing the data provided by the Client or Participant to a third party.
12. The Organizer does not require the Client or Participant to provide any data or share their image in order to participate in the Conference via an external application.
13. If, despite paying the fee for participation in the Conference, the Client or Participant did not receive a link (hyperlink) from the Organizer enabling participation in the Conference, they are obliged to immediately report the above to the Organizer in order to clarify the matter.
14. The organizer declares that the content provided as part of the Conference is solely educational. The Organizer has no influence on the way they are interpreted by the Client or Participant, or on the way and results of using this content by the Client or Participant in practice.

§4

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PLACING ORDERS ON THE WEBSITE - REGISTRATION FOR THE CONFERENCE

1. Placing Orders via the Website is possible 7 days a week, 24 hours a day, at the latest by the day of the Conference.
2. Placing Orders takes place through the Registration service and completing the registration form available on the Website.
3. Upon using the Registration service, an Agreement for the provision of electronic services is concluded between the Customer and the Service Provider.
4. Placing an Order is made by:
  - 1) selection of the package regarding the possibility of participating in the Conference, depending on the Client's status and the moment of using the Registration;
  - 2) providing the data necessary to conclude the Agreement for participation in the Conference and its proper implementation;
  - 3) acceptance of the Regulations by checking the appropriate box;
  - 4) submitting a statement that the Customer's representative has provided his personal data in the registration form or a statement on obtaining consent to provide the organizer with the personal data of the person indicated in the registration form;
  - 5) submitting a declaration of being authorized to conclude the Agreement for the participation of the Conference on behalf of the Client, by checking the appropriate box;
  - 6) clicking on the "Register and pay" field.
5. The customer, until the action referred to in §4 para. 4 point 5) has the option to modify the Order, as well as to cancel it completely, via the Website.
6. By placing an Order, the Customer agrees to receive an invoice by e-mail without the recipient's signature.
7. After placing the Order, the Customer will receive from the Service Provider a message confirming registration for the Conferences and a VAT invoice or a pro forma invoice to the e-mail address provided in the registration form. As soon as the Customer receives the message referred to in the preceding sentence, the Agreement for participation in the Conference is concluded between the Customer and the Organizer.

§ 5

FEE AND METHOD OF PAYMENT

1. The amount of fees is included in the Price List on the Website. The prices are expressed in Polish zlotys in gross amounts.
2. After placing the Order, the Customer is obliged to make the payment for the conclusion of the Agreement on participation in the Conference. Payment may be made immediately after Registration via electronic transfer via the online payment operator indicated on the Website. The customer also has the right to transfer funds to the Organizer by traditional bank transfer. The payment for participation in the Conference should be made by the Customer immediately, immediately after placing the Order and no later than on the day of the Conference. The date of payment is the date on which the funds are credited to the Organizer's bank account.
3. If the Customer fails to pay for the placed Order, within the time limit specified in §5 section 2, the Order is canceled, about which the Organizer informs the Customer by sending appropriate information by e-mail. The contract for participation in the Conference is then terminated.
4. The Organizer will issue a VAT invoice for the payments made after the Customer wishes to receive such an invoice during Registration.
5. The Service Provider has the right to organize promotional campaigns, including introducing discounts, in accordance with applicable regulations. The terms of promotional campaigns or the rules for granting discounts will be each time specified in separate information made available on the Website's website.
6. The Service Provider has the right to change prices at any time.
7. The Service Provider's rights referred to in §5 para. 5 and 6 do not affect Orders that were placed before the effective date of any of the changes referred to in these paragraphs.

§ 6

COMPLAINTS, WITHDRAWAL FROM THE CONTRACT FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE CONFERENCE

1. The Service Provider's liability for the provision of services is included in the relevant provisions, and this document should not be read as providing additional warranty or extending the rights of customers beyond the statutory requirements.
2. Complaints regarding services provided electronically by the Service Provider, as well as Contracts for participation in the Conference, may be submitted by the Customer to the e-mail address: jkowalski@medmeetstech.com or by mail to the following address: Aleja Wielkopolska 29, 60-603 Poznan, Poland. Complaints regarding the Agreement on participation in the Conference may be submitted no later than within 14 days from the date of the end of the Conference.
3. The Service Provider, in order to accelerate the complaint handling procedure, recommends that the submitted complaints contain at least the following data:
  - 1) Customer designation (first name, surname or name and e-mail address);
  - 2) the subject of the complaint;
  - 3) circumstances justifying the complaint.

4. The requirements specified in §6 sec. 3 are only indicative. Filing a complaint without observing these requirements does not affect the effectiveness of the complaint.
5. The Service Provider considers the complaint immediately, but not later than within 14 days of its receipt.
6. When considering a complaint, the Service Provider will apply the Website Regulations and the Privacy Policy, as well as generally applicable provisions of law.
7. The decision regarding the complaint will be forwarded to the customer to the e-mail or correspondence address provided by him in the complaint.
8. The complaint procedure referred to in § 6 sec. 3-7 of this paragraph applies to complaints related to the functioning of the Website, as well as the Agreement for the participation of the Conference.
9. The Customer who is a consumer has the right, without giving a reason, to withdraw from the Agreement for participation in the Conference within 14 days from the date of its conclusion, with the proviso that to the Customer who is a consumer who submitted a declaration of withdrawal after the date of the Conference - due to the conclusion of the Agreement on participation in the Conference less than 14 days before its date - the Organizer has the right to keep the amount paid for the service provided, as long as it has allowed the Customer who is a consumer to participate in the Conference. For effective withdrawal, it is sufficient to send an appropriate declaration to the e-mail address of the Service Provider jkowalski@medmeetstech.com before the expiry of the withdrawal period. After the withdrawal, the Service Provider shall immediately return to the Customer's bank account the payments made by him / her, except when, despite submitting a declaration of withdrawal from the contract, the Customer who is a consumer or the Participant indicated by him, nevertheless took part in the Conference before the payment was refunded.
10. The Customer who is a Consumer is not entitled to withdraw from the Agreement for participation in the Conference in the cases referred to in art. 38 of the Act on consumer rights. The customer who is a consumer has the right to use extrajudicial means of dealing with complaints and redress against the Service Provider. A customer who is a consumer may also apply to poviats consumer ombudsmen or social organizations whose statutory tasks include the protection of consumer rights, and may also use the online dispute resolution platform within the European Union available at: <http://ec.europa.eu/consumers/odr/>.

§7

PRIVACY POLICY

1. The Service Provider enables the use of its functionalities via the Website, in particular the following services:
  - 1) Registration - a one-off service that begins when the Customer starts filling in the electronic registration form in order to submit an offer related to the Agreement for participation in the Conference;
  - 2) Newsletter - a cyclical service that begins with the provision of an e-mail address by the Customer and consent by checking the appropriate box on the Website, enabling the receipt of electronic messages, including commercial information regarding the Service Provider's activities;
  - 3) Startup Application - a one-off service commencing when the Customer starts to fill in the electronic form in order to send the startup application;

2. Using the services listed in §7 para. 1 is possible after accepting the Regulations of the Website and providing the relevant data.
3. The Service Provider provides services electronically via the Website.
4. To use the services on the Website, it is necessary to have access to the Internet and an e-mail address, but it is not necessary to meet specific technical requirements apart from having a standard operating system and a web browser.
5. Access to the Website may be associated with the necessity to pay fees, in particular for obtaining access to the Internet. All costs related to meeting the technical requirements are the responsibility of the customer.
6. The Service Provider undertakes activities aimed at the continuity of the Website's operation. The Service Provider reserves, however, that there may be breaks in the functioning of the Website in order to update it, data contained therein, correct errors or perform other technical works.
7. The Service Provider points out that access to the Website or individual services may be time-limited or disabled due to technical reasons or failures. The Service Provider will immediately inform the Customers about each technical break or failure, as well as the expected duration, in a customary manner. The Service Provider will make every effort to ensure that technical breaks are carried out at night if possible and last as short as possible.
8. The Service Provider has no influence on the content of websites placed in other domains not owned by the Service Provider, to which hyperlinks are included on the Website. The Service Provider has no influence on the non-performance or improper performance of obligations under the Agreement for participation in the Conference or the Agreement for the provision of electronic services as a result of defective hardware or software of the Customer.
9. The Customer undertakes to refrain from any actions that may hinder the access to the Website or services by other people and from any actions that disrupt or prevent the functioning of the Website and services, in particular the Customer undertakes not to disturb the operation of the Service Provider's computer systems, servers and networks.
10. The Customer is obliged to immediately inform the Service Provider about any violations of his rights in connection with the use of the Website.
11. If it is found that the Customer commits activities prohibited by law or the Regulations, or violates the principles of social coexistence or harms the justified interest of the Service Provider, in particular its good name, the Service Provider may take all lawful actions, including limiting the Customer's ability to use the Website.
12. Using the services is free of charge or against payment. The Service Provider reserves the right to introduce fees for any services provided on the Website or to introduce new paid services, promotions or discounts.
13. It is forbidden to provide and disseminate illegal content by the Customer on the Website or through it. The customer undertakes not to post or send any content or links to websites:
  - 1) violating the rights and interests of third parties,
  - 2) calling to racial, ethnic, religious, cultural and sexual orientation hatred,
  - 3) promoting pornography or violence,
  - 4) advertising,
  - 5) inconsistent with the principles generally accepted in the Internet community.

14. The Customer may use the services provided by the Service Provider only for purposes consistent with generally applicable law and morality.
15. If the Customer publishes content that violates the provisions of §7 para. 13, the Service Provider has the right to remove this content.
16. Any comments and problems regarding the services and operation of the Website may be reported by the Customer directly to the Service Provider at his e-mail address.
17. The Customer may terminate the Agreement for the provision of electronic services with immediate effect, a unilateral declaration of will, for the provision of all services or only some of them, by sending an e-mail with a relevant request to the address of the Service Provider.
18. The termination referred to in §7 subpara. 17 is not tantamount to the termination of the Agreement for participation in the Conference, on the basis of which the Client or the Participant indicated by him obtained the right to participate in the Conference.
19. The bans and obligations of the Client related to the Agreement for participation in the Conference apply respectively to the Participant indicated by the Client. In this regard, the Customer is obliged to notify the Participant about the content of these Regulations and takes responsibility for his actions or omissions.
20. The provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation of 27 April 2016 (hereinafter "RODO") in connection with the provisions of the Act on the provision of electronic services and the provisions of the Regulations shall apply to the processing of personal data.
21. The use of the Website, as well as the conclusion and implementation of the contracts referred to in the Regulations, requires the Customer to provide information, some of which may constitute his personal data or personal data of third parties, ie Participants. In the event that the Customer, when concluding an Agreement for participation in the Conference with the Organizer, indicates the data of a Participant other than himself, he then confirms that he has obtained the consent of that Participant to provide his personal data indicated in the registration form for purposes related to the conclusion and implementation of the Agreement for participation at the Conference and undertakes to inform this Participant about the scope and method of processing his personal data by the Organizer.
22. The Service Provider will process the following data:
  - 1) For the Registration service - identity data, address data, data necessary for the settlement of the parties to the Agreement for participation in the Conference and / or issuing an invoice, contact details, information about the affiliation and status of the Client or Participant for statistical purposes;
  - 2) For the Newsletter service - e-mail address;
  - 3) For Application startup - Customer's name and surname, Customer's e-mail address.
23. Information obtained from the Customer, constituting his personal data or the personal data of the Participant, is processed in order to:
  - 1) Take the necessary steps before concluding the Agreement for the provision of electronic services between the Customer and the Service Provider, as well as the Agreement for participation in the Conference between the Service Provider and the Customer, and further implementation of these contracts, pursuant to art. 6 sec. 1 lit. b) RODO;
  - 2) Fulfillment of legal obligations incumbent on the Service Provider, pursuant to art. 6 sec. 1 lit. c) RODO;

- 3) Applications and participation in the Conference of the Participant indicated by the Client, pursuant to Art. 6 sec. 1 lit. a) RODO;
  - 4) Sending Commercial Information via the Newsletter service by the Service Provider pursuant to art. 6 sec. 1 lit. a) RODO;
  - 5) Other than those indicated above, resulting from legitimate interests pursued by the Service Provider or authorized third parties, in particular for the purposes of:
    - settlement of benefits resulting from the Agreement for participation in the Conference concluded with the Client,
    - protection of third party rights,
    - ensuring security, including detection and removal of threats,
    - making statistical measurements,
    - conducting direct marketing of own products and services by the Service Provider,
    - mutual communication with representatives of the Client or Participants,
    - considering complaints, based on Article. 6 sec. 1 lit. f) RODO.
24. Providing personal data by the Customer is always voluntary, but failure to provide the data indicated by the Service Provider as required will result in the inability to conclude contracts or use the services.
25. The Customer and the Participant have the right to access the content of the data provided, the right to rectify, delete, limit processing, the right to transfer data, the right to obtain a copy of the data, the right to object, the right to withdraw consent at any time without affecting compliance with the right of processing based on consent prior to withdrawal. The consent is withdrawn or the objection is expressed by sending the relevant information to the Service Provider's e-mail address or otherwise expressly made by the Client or Participant. Moreover, the Customer and the Participant have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office, if they consider that the processing of personal data concerning them violates the provisions of the RODO.
26. The Service Provider is the Personal Data Administrator within the meaning of the RODO in relation to the personal data provided to him by the Customer.
27. The data provided by the Customer may be transferred to entities technically providing IT infrastructure services or other entities with which the Service Provider cooperates in this regard, e.g. partners or experts of the Service Provider, providing services under the Conference.
28. The Service Provider provides information on personal data provided by the Customer to state authorities for the purposes of their proceedings.
29. The Service Provider may entrust the processing of personal data of the Customer or Participant to other entities for purposes related to the provision of services and the performance of contracts, while maintaining the requirements resulting from the RODO. The indicated entities will then be recipients of personal data within the meaning of the RODO.
30. The customer is obliged to provide truthful data and to immediately update the data in the event of a change by using the right to rectify the data.
31. Personal data will be stored for the duration of the services or legal relationships arising as a result of using the Website's functionality and after their completion, no longer than until the claims are time-barred, as well as for the duration of the justified purpose on the part of the Service Provider or until cancellation. consent expressed by the Client or Participant.

32. The Service Provider, as the Personal Data Administrator, cares for their security, in particular, uses physical and software security measures to protect the data against unauthorized access.
33. As part of the Website, the Service Provider uses files saved on the Customer's end device, used to identify their browsers while using the Website ("cookies" technology). They are used to provide the Service Provider with statistical information on the traffic, activity and manner of using the Website by customers. They allow you to customize content and services to individual preferences.
34. The Service Provider uses the technology of cookies, local storage or similar files on the Website, used to collect and process data, for the following purposes:
  - 1) Security and authentication - cookies are used to detect and counteract threats, including unauthorized use of the Website, and to enable the use of the Website's services;
  - 2) Functionality - cookies are used to remember the settings selected by the Customer and to personalize his interface, e.g. in terms of the selected page appearance, font size, etc.
  - 3) Analytics - cookies are used to collect information on how the Website is used by customers; for this purpose, the Website also uses a third party service (e.g. Google Analytics), thanks to which it obtains anonymised reports on the use of the Website and the effectiveness of marketing campaigns conducted.
35. Data stored in cookies, referred to in §7 para. 34 are obtained automatically, and the Customer may, by means of the settings of the web browser used or other software installed in the telecommunications device used by the Customer, independently manage cookies. The customer may decide to block cookies or disable certain types of cookies, depending on the web browser used. Blocking cookies completely may result in the inability or difficulty in using the Website or its individual services.
36. Due to the variety of available browsers and applications for the operation of websites, the management of "cookies" in different browsers looks different, therefore, before using the Website, it is recommended to familiarize yourself with the management of privacy / security functions placed in the menu of the browser used by the Customer, and configure them the way they prefer.
37. The Customer is informed about the fact that the Service Provider uses the cookie technology after entering the Website.
38. The Website uses two basic types of cookies: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are temporary files that are stored on the Customer's end device until they leave the website or turn off the software (web browser). "Persistent" cookies are stored on the Customer's end device for the time specified in the parameters of cookies or until they are deleted by the Customer.
39. Personal data is not subject to automated processing (the so-called profiling) consisting in the use of personal data to assess certain personal factors of a natural person, in particular to analyze or forecast aspects related to the effects of work of that natural person, his economic situation, health, personal preferences, interests, reliability, behavior, location or movement. Personal data is not processed outside the EU.

§ 8
FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The Customer declares that he has obtained comprehensive information on the functions and purpose of the software or data that is not a component of the content of the services, entered by the Service Provider into the IT system used by the Customer.
2. The Service Provider informs that the use of the services is associated with the risks characteristic of this type of service, in particular the possibility of receiving unsolicited commercial information, the presence of malware (e.g. computer viruses, malware capable of self-replication) or spyware (spyware). user on the Internet), as well as the possibility of being exposed to cracking or phishing (catching passwords). At the same time, the Service Provider informs that it has taken all necessary steps to minimize the above-mentioned risks.
3. The Service Provider reserves the right to change the Regulations at any time in the event of important reasons such as: change in the legal status, occurrence of events beyond the Service Provider's control, which could not be foreseen by the Service Provider with due diligence, change in the socio-economic situation resulting from events of a nature epidemiological, affecting the provision of services, correction of errors or inaccuracies in the Regulations affecting the provision of services.
4. In the event of a change to the Regulations, its delivery to the Customer will take place by placing on the Website or sending it to the e-mail address. Amendments to the Regulations come into force within 3 days from the date they are made available on the Website. The Service Provider undertakes to make any changes to the Regulations regarding the Agreement for participation in the Conference in advance, enabling the implementation of the provisions of this paragraph, before the date of the Conference. In the event of changes to the Regulations in the scope relating to the Agreement for the provision of electronic services or the Agreement for participation in the Conference, the Customer has the option to terminate the indicated agreements within 7 days from the date of informing him about the changes. In the absence of termination of the indicated contracts, it is considered that the Customer has agreed to the changes in the Regulations.
5. The law applicable to the assessment of the effects of the application of the Regulations, Agreement, Agreement for the supply of digital content and Agreement for participation in the Congress is Polish law.
6. The Regulations are valid from February 18, 2021.